PRESIDENT WILL APPEAL TO ROADS AND MEN TO AVERT A STRIKE AS WAR CRISIS PENDS

ARRANGE FOR 'SLAV' CZAR TO ABDICATE

DUMA COMMITTEE AND REVOLUTIONISTS IN CONTROL—EMPEROR'S WHEREABOUTS A MYSTERY.

DUKE LOOMS AS POWER

Grand Duke Nicholas, Who Was Displaced As Commander of Russian Armies, Expected to Have Hand in New Regime.

London, March 16.—Mr. Bonar Law told the house a telegram received from Petrograd said that the whereabouts of Emperor Nicholas were not known, following telegram from the British embassy in Petrograd.

"What was stated in my previous telegram, does not appear to be quite accurate. The emperor's abdication and the appointment of Grand Duke Michael as regent has not yet taken effect, although decided upon by the executive committee."

Restores Grand Duke's Prestige. Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian army and ranked as Russia's greatest strategist, looms up as a big military figure of the hour in the empire which has just witnessed a revolution and the abdication of its emperor.

The relinquishment of the throne by Nicholas I. automatically deprived him of his rank as commander in chief of the Russian army. The heir to the throne is an infant, and Grand Duke Michael, named as regent, while a soldier of repute, is not of commanding military experience.

Thus the nation, the Petrograd dispatches indicate, is turning to its most tried and trusted military leader, Grand Duke Nicholas, to report to the emperor and to the capital, and the probability is pointed that he will take command of the troops.

Of the complete success of the revolutionary movement, which the lead was taken by the Duma there seems no doubt. While there have been few military received as to the army at the front, such has been the success of the revolution in the military with the exception of reactionaries among officers, together with all popular forces of the empire, is backing the new government.

Order Quickly Restored. The civil forces of the nation are cooperating with the government most heartily in restoring normalcy in the life of the empire. The Duma, which is the chief factor in shaping the course of the new regime, and executive council are reported cooperating successfully in straightening out the various tangled threads of the government. The food problem is being tackled, and the people are being urged to conserve their own power to repress any element of population that might be inclined to indulge in excesses.

A measure of general political amnesty is reported in the course of preparation by the new Russian minister of justice. Grand Duke Nicholas is said to have endorsed this measure, and it is expected to be passed by the Duma and the executive council as a successful conclusion.

Nicholas Ready. London, March 16.—The Grand Duke Nicholas is reported in a Russian dispatch from Petrograd to have been in the Russian capital. The report says he possibly will take command of the troops. The question of replacing officers, who were displaced by their own troops, is one which must be decided most promptly. In the meanwhile the provisional government is doing its utmost to straighten out the various tangled threads of the Duma and the executive council are working hand in hand, although issuing separate proclamations.

People Kept Informed. Despite non-appearance in the news, the public is better informed than it has been at any time before. For this purpose a special squadron of motor-cars have been commandeered by the executive committee, and the printed bulletins free to everybody. Thus the most authentic news is being speedily circulated.

Through this bulletin service, President Wilson has appealed earnestly to the people not to injure government buildings, telegraphs, the water supply, equipment, factories, etc., and to continue the public services and to be obedient. In the meantime, he is energetically tackling the food problem and the public is confident that the combined efforts of the Duma and Zemstvo will soon assure adequate supply. Large stores of flour have been uncovered in various parts of the city. The factories there have formed police service, and the factory district is being guarded by every lot of their workmen.

A Russian dispatch from Petrograd said the emperor is expected to arrive at Tsarskoye-Selo palace and that several elements of artillery are hastening to the same place.

Reports Burned. Practically the entire archives of the Russian secret police were burned by the revolutionists, according to a Tass dispatch from Petrograd. When the building in which the notorious third section had its headquarters was captured, eager crowds sacked offices, and the secret police records were quickly converted into bonfires. Not all the documents, however, were destroyed. The new government has obtained possession of lists of spies and informers, who are being fast run to earth.

Commanded Slav Armies. At the opening of the war, Grand Duke Nicholas was reported commander-in-chief of the Russian armies. He quickly came into world-wide prominence by his series of victories against the Austrians in Galicia during the summer of 1914, which made him the popular hero of Russians, and one of the great figures of the war.

Even the great Austro-German drive in the following summer, hardly lessened his prestige, although the Russians were forced back all along the front, losing most of Galicia, all of Poland, and parts of White Russia, and the Baltic provinces. During this disastrous campaign the Russians, short of guns and ammunition, preserved an unbroken spirit and when Grand Duke conducted a retreat in a manner which won the highest praise from military men.

Despite this the Grand Duke was deposed by Emperor Nicholas in 1915, the emperor himself taking command of the Russian army and sending the former chief commander to the Caucasus.

Frank Duke Nicholas, born in 1866, is second cousin of Nicholas II. His part in the Russo-Japanese war was an active and distinguished one. In 1906 he became president of the council of national defense. Twice in that year his life was unsuccessfully attempted.

New Regent a Democrat. Russia's new regent, upon the provisional government established by the Duma, is a democrat and believes in representative government. Dismissed by the czar, the Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich, who was living in England with his wife, Mrs. Shorette, was in 1906 he became president of the council of national defense. Twice in that year his life was unsuccessfully attempted.

His marriage took place in November, 1912. The czar did not learn of it until the following January. Then he publicly disgraced Michael by ordering him and his wife to quit Russia within four months.

The priest who performed the ceremony was unfrocked. The minister of the interior and several police chiefs were removed from office. The birth of a son to czar, was the heir to the Russian throne.

Urged by Revolutionists. Many times since taking up his residence in the Duma, he has been urged by Russian revolutionary committees to take up their cause. It has been pointed out to him that on account of his birth and democratic principles he could easily become the one man in Russia whom bureaucracy, autocracy and czarism could not resist.

To such overtures he has always shaken his head and said: "I cannot."

In one of his recent interviews he said to a reporter: "I was born to me when a son was born to the czar. It relieved me of the obligation of becoming czar in case of my brother's death. It is a dignity that is not a very enviable one."

He told his friends he went to England because he wanted to live quietly like "any other human being."

Liberals in Control. Petrograd, March 15, via London, March 16.—The old regime of czarism has been supplanted by a government of liberals. M. Kerenski, the new minister of justice, is a socialist. He accepted the portfolio on the stipulation that he should be free of freedom of speech and of press, and full political amnesty. The cabinet has been chosen exclusively from present and past members of the committee of the Duma in conjunction with other deputies and representatives of working men and soldiers which has been higher session.

The new cabinet contains men who led in the struggle against the old regime and enjoyed full confidence of the country.

While the Duma and the working men's committee agreed upon the cabinet, they still remained somewhat at odds, regarding the form the new government shall assume.

Changes Not Effective. London, March 16.—The abdication of Emperor Nicholas and appointment of Grand Duke Michael as regent has not yet been taken into effect, though it has been decided on by the executive power. Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, announced today.

EMBARGO FELT HERE; ONLY DEAD FREIGHT TAKEN, THAT AT RISK

Both Roads' Declaration Announced Last Night—Goods Held Here for Several Days Past.

The railroad embargoes hit Janesville today and practically no freight is being received by either railway. Agent Fred W. Zimmerman of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway and Agent Alva Hommes of the Chicago & Northwestern last night received their orders relative to the embargoes.

Neither perishables (foodstuffs, etc.) nor livestock are to be received which can not be at their destination Saturday morning at six o'clock and subject to delay and to loss from strike at the risk of shippers, dead freight for all points east of Chicago, and in fact for any point, would be the result, but only with the guarantee that the shipper takes the chance.

Apprehensive of a general tieup as the result of the threat of the railway brotherhoods to strike, a strike order last night should the conference with the railway managers throughout yesterday at New York fail to reach satisfactory agreement, the impending crisis, Janesville shippers for the past three days have been withholding their freight. Rather than have it tied up with the congestion which is sure to come in the strike, local firms are keeping their finished products at home.

Janesville manufacturers using electric power and the populace need not fear for a lessening of either power or light for at least a month, according to information given out by P. H. Korst of the electric company and from the offices of the New Gas Light company. Each has a large fuel supply.

At the gas company it was stated that supplies of oil for a month and coke and coal for two months were stored here. But fuels are used in the manufacture of water gas.

Under present river conditions electric light and power could be furnished by the river. Although it does not seem necessary to a casual observer, the upper plant consumes more coal during periods of high water, as a pump is used to pump water out during the next month, than during normal stages of the river.

At the present time it is necessary to keep the engine going continuously, the high water's energy gives to the turbines about half the power than water of average depth. The other half must necessarily be furnished by steam.

What manufacturing plants furnishing their own power have in the way of fuel to last any period is not known, but it is felt that the fuel supply on hand is not very great.

U-BOAT WAR CALLED INHUMAN BY MEMBER OF PRUSSIAN DIET

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

London, March 16.—Germany's submarine campaign was denounced as inhuman by a member of the Prussian Diet today. The speaker, Dr. Dietrich, declared that the use of submarines was a crime against humanity and that the government was responsible for the deaths of thousands of innocent civilians.

He added: "We have not been in communication with the present either directly or indirectly. I see no reason why any statement on the situation should be issued by us today. If one is issued it will not be until seven o'clock. That statement will simply be 'There is no change.'"

Peace negotiations between the roads of the United States and employees of brotherhoods have failed. The railroad chiefs in New York had a meeting today and the prospect of a strike of conductors, engineers, firemen and trainmen that will tie up railroad transportation from Maine to California.

REPORT MEXICO TORN BY NEW REVOLUTION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

El Paso, March 16.—Reports of a new revolutionary movement in Mexico, headed by General Obregon, Felix Diaz and with Villa included in the alliance, have been received here. The Yaqui Indians from Sonora, who were sent to Chihuahua City, are reported to have revolted in favor of Obregon. Sonora is reported about to join in the new movement.

LET CONTRACTS FOR TEN U. S. CRUISERS

Washington, March 16.—Details of contracts for four battle cruisers and six scout cruisers costing $112,000,000 for hulls and machinery alone, were arranged with private builders today by the navy department.

The new contract contains men who led in the struggle against the old regime and enjoyed full confidence of the country.

IRISH NATIONALISTS FAVOR STOPPING WAR

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

London, March 16.—In discussing the Irish situation in the house of commons today, Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, declared that the nationalists might compel an appeal to the country on the ground that the nationalists were unwilling to permit the government to go on with the war.

BOTH SIDES PREPARE FOR RAIL STRIKE

BROTHERHOODS AND RAILROADS TAKE STEPS LOOKING FORWARD TO WALKOUT ON SATURDAY.

EMBARGOES DECLARED

Railroad Managers Advise Embargoes on All Perishable Goods—Passenger Tie-up Will Come Next Week.

BULLETIN. New York, March 16.—There were no surface indications this morning that any move had been made, either by chiefs of the Brotherhood of Railway Employees or railroad managers, to prevent the strike which threatens to paralyze the transportation system of the country, scheduled to begin within less than thirty hours. Both groups were in separate conferences today and each apparently in readiness to receive overtures from the other, and waiting for the other to make the first move.

Both were expected to meet at Washington and were eager to hear the result of the cabinet meeting, which President Wilson called to consider the situation.

Reports received from various parts of the country by railway managers indicated, they declared, organized withdrawal by some of the roads' employees from the brotherhood agreement to strike.

New York, March 16.—Both sides in the threatened railroad strike today held further joint conferences, although the situation this morning was devoid of any suggestion that a compromise would be reached. A nationwide transportation tie-up indications were unofficial that both the railroad managers and brotherhood chiefs were marking time, pending any possible action by President Wilson, and with each group prepared to respond to overtures from the other side.

The one hundred general chairman of the brotherhood of the eastern lines met here today to arrange details for the strike.

Separate Conferences. Both the railroad managers and brotherhood chiefs held separate conferences all day, but no suggestion of resumption of joint meetings, came from either side. The situation seemed to be each group was waiting for the other to make the first move.

Both sides were summoned a cabinet meeting and indicated they expected some action in Washington. W. G. Lee, head of trainmen, said the brotherhood were willing to accept any proposal from the government.

He added: "We have not been in communication with the present either directly or indirectly. I see no reason why any statement on the situation should be issued by us today. If one is issued it will not be until seven o'clock. That statement will simply be 'There is no change.'"

COLOMBIAN TREATY TAKEN FROM SENATE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington, March 16.—The treaty with Colombia to pay $25,000,000 for partition of Panama was withdrawn from the senate today on motion of Chairman Stone of the foreign relations committee and will not be acted upon at the special session of the senate.

AMERICANS REDUCE FOOD CONSUMPTION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington, March 16.—The war and high food prices have caused Americans to be more economical on consumption of foodstuffs. Statistics indicating that fact have just been announced by the department of agriculture. They show in the years 1912 and 1913, before the war, the United States was consuming 2.8 per cent more food than it produced. In the years 1914 and 1915, the United States produced 12 per cent more food than it consumed. Americans were consuming less edible grain, meat, dairy products, vegetables, sugar and fish, while consumption of coffee, tea, fruit, nuts, poultry and eggs had increased.

Stirke Situation In Brief

A strike of 400,000 men to begin on Saturday night and extend to all roads in the country within five days, was ordered by railroad brotherhood officials following failure to reach an agreement with President Wilson, in effect the Adamson law is held unconstitutional, was refused by the men.

A proposal to the managers that the whole matter be submitted to the Goethals commission, created by President Wilson, in effect the Adamson law is held unconstitutional, was refused by the men.

Freight employees, yard men and engine hostlers will be the first to leave their posts. Passenger trains will be the last affected.

President Wilson is believed powerless to deal with the situation and it is said he is considering an appeal to the men not to strike during the present international crisis. Representatives of the employees said such an appeal would be "considered." They added, however, that there was no "bluff about the strike."

Men on the northwestern group of roads will be called out on Sunday.

Claim Defections. From the railroad headquarters comes the statement that the engine hostlers are expected to withdraw their representative to withdraw from the strike.

It was also stated the firemen of the Illinois Central had notified their representative to withdraw as they opposed the strike.

Conductors and engineers of the Southern system were also stated to have withdrawn from taking part in the strike.

Deny Reports. G. H. Sines, vice president of the Brotherhoods, stated: "I do not believe the reports of defection. Our latest information from these sources were that the vote to call the strike was unanimous."

Lee of the trainmen's union, stated he did not believe the reports and had received information relative to any defections.

Send Out Notices. Chicago, March 16.—Railroads entering Chicago began sending out notices of embargoes today. The first came from the New York Central, which announced after midnight tonight no freight would be accepted. Notices of various belt lines companies followed.

Rumors of Dissension. Persistent reports of dissension in ranks of hundreds of local brotherhood chairmen attending the executive committee here today to ratify strike orders, were circulated in corridors of the Masonic Temple, where the meeting was held.

Thomas Shea, assistant president of firemen, and other high officials, denied them, but they would not down. Representatives of Kansas City Local 102, said to have instructions to oppose the strike. Denver was said to have similar instructions. Some of the chiefs in New York had been told to call a strike on the basis of the vote taken last summer.

St. Paul, Minn., March 16.—Because of the threatened railroad strike, yesterday placed an embargo on all freight of perishable nature or live stock destined to points on or beyond the city. The embargo was in effect at 1 p. m., Sunday, March 18. All other freight will be accepted "subject to owners' risk and delay."

UNION MEN LOCALLY ARE STILL ISOLATED FROM STRIKE ORDERS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Members of Brotherhoods Here Anxiously Awaiting Definite Orders From Leaders.

Local railway men knew practically no more about strike plans than what has been received here in press dispatches. Members of all four brotherhoods questioned today could not give a particle of definite information on the subject. No orders have been received by local men.

That the strike was not a "bluff" is the determined statement of all men. The brotherhoods are in a state of alarm. The men are waiting for the order to strike.

The general opinion prevailing among the groups at the depots and about town seemed to be that "if it must be let's have it and settle it once and for all. Even now the men are waiting for the order to strike. They realize that hardships must follow the strike and the men are waiting for the order to strike.

Freights First. Strike orders call for a cessation of work only on freight trains. The employees expect their first display of strength will bring the roads to terms. If it fails to do this, the strike will be extended on successive days to freight employees throughout the country until Wednesday all roads will be affected.

At seven o'clock Saturday night, unless President Wilson intervenes, or railroad managers and their men make an unexpected compromise, the strike will begin with freight and passenger trains. The strike will be in effect in the country, both freight and passenger service, will feel the effect of the strike by Monday, March 20.

Railroads Ready. Plans to combat such a strike were completed by the railroad managers today. They are waiting for the order to strike.

Reports from Kansas City and other points in the west, that some employees were unwilling to obey a strike call, were met by a statement by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, that their leaders expected at least one in twelve to refuse to strike.

"Don't forget, history says our Saviors found one Judas among the twelve," he said, "Mr. Lee said, 'We therefore, do not look for at least one in twelve. The only way to determine whether our men are in earnest is to count noses Sunday and hereafter.'"

The railroad managers are waiting for the order to strike. They are waiting for the order to strike. They are waiting for the order to strike.

CALLS EXTRA SESSION OF HIS CABINET TO DEBATE SITUATION

PRESIDENT SUMMONS HIS ADVISERS INTO CONFERENCE TO DECIDE ON MOVE CONCERNING STRIKE.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington, D. C., March 12.—Secretary Lane, Secretary Wilson, Samuel Gompers and others of the National Committee of Defense will represent the president at a conference with the railroad and the brotherhood heads and urge that the strike be postponed if it can not be settled until some later date on the ground that it is in the interest of public safety and defense of national honor. This was the final decision of the cabinet conference held today.

Division Exists Among Cabinet Members as to Means of Dealing With Traffic Tie-up Ordered for Saturday.

It is known that the cabinet members are divided as to the means of dealing with the traffic tie-up ordered for Saturday.

Washington, March 16.—After the cabinet had been in session fifteen minutes, Secretary Wilson left and said Secretary Baker would issue a statement shortly on the railroad strike situation.

Washington, March 16.—President Wilson is expected to make his first move to prevent the threatened strike after today's cabinet meeting.

The president cancelled a regular cabinet meeting when he got reports from the conferences in New York, and then suddenly summoned the members for this afternoon. A general impression prevailed in official circles that the president, before going further, will appeal to both railroad and men to avert a strike at this critical juncture in international affairs.

Division in Cabinet. It is known that the cabinet members are divided as to the means of dealing with the traffic tie-up ordered for Saturday.

Some of the president's advisers pointed out today while he favored contentions of the men in the railroad strike situation, that in such a situation the president's interests as over-shadowing all others.

May Appeal to Both Sides. Reports received by the president's advisers today that any appeal or demand on his part would be useless. Government officials, however, believe something would have to be done to stop the strike.

The belief was expressed in influential administration quarters that the president would make at least one move to prevent the present strike. The immediate move most discussed was the issuance by the president of a demand that the two sides settle their differences because of the grave international situation.

Consideration was given by administration officials to possible drastic steps which might be taken to form operations on railroads in case a strike had surely come. One means suggested, was for the government to ask for receivership, if necessary, for roads, and undertake the operation. The discussion was entirely tentative, however.

The council of national defense, including several cabinet members, met today to discuss the situation. The council was held in the morning, but it did not seem very strong. Congress at the last session failed to pass a bill to empower the president to seize and operate railroads in an emergency, and many officials were inclined to doubt the efficacy of a personal appeal from the president to the railroad and employees to compose their differences.

Washington, March 16.—President Wilson and other government officials today canvassed all phases of the railroad strike situation, but their hope of preventing it did not seem very strong. SPRING OPENINGS

WILL BE INTERESTING

Twelve Openings in One Will Take Place on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 22d, 23d and 24th.

The ground hog, the first robin and the boys' marbles may all be mistaken about the coming of spring, but when the merchants announce their spring openings then all doubt can be cast aside. This year, on the first day of spring, March 21st, and the two following days the Janesville merchants will combine their openings in one grand spring opening and fashion festival.

While a spring opening is not what is generally termed a bargain event, yet the values that will be obtainable at the stores during these three days when compared to those offered in other cities is proof that Janesville prices are lower.

Spring is the time when humanity enlures nature and puts on new, clean, attractive garb. The whole clothing and shoe world has been much upset by the war. Some things are very hard to obtain, but the styles have changed as usual, but regardless of these conditions Janesville stores have come to the front with stocks and specials equal to the best of them. On Wednesday evening, March 21, at 7:30, the windows of the stores participating in this combined opening event will be unveiled to the public and a large brass band will furnish music throughout the business section of the city.

FEBRUARY FIRE LOSS REACHES HIGH TOTAL

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., March 16.—Wisconsin's fire loss for the month of February was over three-quarters of a million dollars, according to reports received by State Fire Marshal M. J. Clegg, the exact number of fire reports being 342 and the total losses $791,715. This is more than twice the amount of losses in February, 1916, or February, 1915, and exceeds the heavy loss of the first month of this year, the comparative figures follow:

Month	No. of Fires	Losses
February, 1917	342	$791,715
February, 1916	168	348,725
February, 1915	200	303,210
February, 1914	237	356,516

As Wisconsin's annual fire loss for some years past has been between five and six million dollars, the losses for the first two months of this year are considerably above the monthly average. A number of large factory and warehouse fires contributed materially toward the high total, there being 14 fires with losses of over $100,000 each. Classified by causes, chimney fires lead in number, with those from defective stoves and stoves next in order. Causes and the resultant losses follow:

Causes	No. of Fires	Losses
Chimneys	90	$180,635
Stoves and pipes	90	50,147
Match	26	18,820
Furnaces	21	57,920
Kerosene explosions	161	8,405
Smokers' carelessness	14	18,905
Spontaneous combustion	10	103,210
Suspicious	10	39,325
Thawing pipes	10	2,050

The fire marshal's department is preparing instructions relative to more effective measures to be taken to prevent such fires that fire dangers may be thus reduced.

JOB ARE ABUNDANT STATE BUREAU FINDS

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., March 16.—During 1916 the public employment bureau which is conducted in Milwaukee by the industrial commission received calls for 46,674 employees and 34,603 applications for work. It referred 34,603 workmen and women to positions of work, 25,945 of whom had been hired. This was the first year in the history of the bureau that jobs were more abundant than workmen. The total number referred to positions, 25,930, were men and 9,087 women. Thirty per cent of the men were skilled workmen and 70 per cent unskilled. Thirty per cent of the women were unskilled, namely, domestics, casual workers, and waitresses. This bureau is one of the largest free employment offices in the country. It has been so successful that most of the private employment offices in Milwaukee have gone out of business. It also supplied workmen to many employers outside of Milwaukee, including farm laborers. No charges are made either from employers or workmen for the services of the bureau. The total cost of operation of this bureau during 1916 was $8,600, of which the state furnished $5,300 and the city and county of Milwaukee $3,300. The average cost per position secured was 23 cents, which is a lower average cost than that of any other free employment office in the country. In 1917 the bureau will devote much attention to clerical employment and to the employment of women. Most clerical positions, however, have been filled, and the bureau is now looking for common laborers only. Arrangements have been made with a separate division to deal with clerical employees, and every effort will be made to extend the free employment work in this field.

RACINE BARBERS BATTLE OVER PROPOSED INCREASES

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Racine, March 15.—To raise or not raise the price of a hair cut is the question that threatens a disruption of the "barberial" interests here. Boss barbers want to keep the status quo while union shavers and haircutters have announced that they will have a strike unless the barbers will have a reduced rate for nothing less than twenty cents. And hair cuts are to cost fifty cents Saturdays and days before holidays, the employers said. But the master barbers are protesting. They want to continue their same prices. Kenosha barbers are preparing to reap a harvest if the hair cut industry is adopted. Racine men can pay their hair to Kenosha on the electric line, have a visit in a real town, and get their shave and hair cut for just what they would pay for a pair cut in their home town, a Kenosha barber said today.

FREIGHT EMBARGO COSTS MANUFACTURERS HUGE SUMS

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Marion, March 16.—The freight congestion cost a manufacturing concern here a $5,000 express bill, when two cars of aluminum castings were shipped by express from the Atlantic coast. They came part of the way coupled to passenger trains, and the building company here recently paid several hundred dollars express on a car of steel. It is the only way the raw materials can be obtained in large quantities.

GERMAN OWNER OF SHOPS ADVISES SACKING OF WILSON

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, March 16.—The German proprietor of a string of barber shops here today sent a circular letter to all his foreign born employees urging them to "stand behind the president, whatever decision he may make." The writer is a native of Germany who has made all he has in the United States. "You, or your fathers before you," says the letter, "came to this country seeking social and political liberty. That you should retain in your hearts the love of your fatherland is but natural. But now that the country of our adoption is itself threatened by the danger of war in the defense of the honor and integrity of its people and its institutions, there is no allegiance which can be yours save the single, absolute and undiluted allegiance to America."

WALDORF BUILT 24 YEARS; BUILDER LAUGHED AT; MADE MILLIONS FROM IT

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, March 15.—George C. Boldt was laughed at and called a fool for throwing his money away when he built the hotel Waldorf "with 400 rooms to cater to the rich," twenty-four years ago today. Boldt, who was a poor man then, died a few weeks ago, leaving a fortune well up into the millions of dollars, all of them made from the hotel.

As we have frequently remarked—if you haven't read the want ads, you have not read ALL the news.

The average year ly cost of feeding a pair of Silver Black Foxes is only $20.

A single Silver Black Fox sold has brought as high as $3,000.

How the Raising of Silver Black Foxes Yields Such Big Profits

MANY interested persons have asked just how my Silver Black Fox Ranch was able to pay 40% Cash Dividends, and the answer is, "because my foxes were not bred from wild stock, (foxes from the wild do not usually breed true to color) but from RANCH-BRED Stock of the HIGHEST QUALITY—producing the choicest and most valuable furs in the world." You also, by raising Silver Black Foxes from stock bought from me, can realize enormous profits, because being Ranch-Bred and of the Best Quality, they will breed true to color and with a Fixed Quality of Fur.

COLLINS' Complete Information and Service

THE REFERENDUM.

If the Wisconsin legislature accepts the decision of the committee to which the bill proposing a state-wide vote on the question of wet or dry, and sends the measure into oblivion they will make one of the saddest mistakes in their political history. For a measure of one vote the question comes up on the floor of the house for consideration it is to be hoped that the majority, not the minority report, will be accepted. It is due the voters of the state to decide this question for themselves, and not for a little coterie of men who are influenced by a powerful lobby to throw aside the will of the people. Take care before it is too late and "watch your vote," you members of the legislature who dare oppose the will of the people.

RUSSIA.

Russia has awakened to its power, thrown off the domination of the coterie of nobles who would deprive the lower classes of their hard-earned liberties, caused a czar to abdicate, created a regency and announced that they are to continue the war against the central powers with no diminution of activity. The revolution, while short-lived, was most effective and has brought results. Evidently it is not a revolution against royalty, but against domination by a coterie of men who have proven unfaithful to the trust given them. The Duma has demonstrated that, backed by the army, it is powerful, and the men who led the revolt against conditions and who constitute the committee of safety have a hard task before them to reorganize the government along new lines and still maintain an offensive stand toward their enemies. Russia's awakening and its rejuvenation will be an interesting study and one of the results brought about by the present war.

THE STRIKE.

The Brotherhoods have decided to strike. The heads of this organization, in a bold move, have taken a most important step for the display of their strength and it will not be the fault of the public, if it is a popular move and the members of the unions that bring it about can be assured that public sentiment is not with them, and it is only a question of time until they realize it. President Wilson seeks to avert the trouble as he did once before, but he is not the man to do it. The men who are the real power in the unions are not men of the old and cooler heads have been refraining from this radical step, but have been ready to follow their side upon the heads of the younger men who are enthusiastic and the prospect of obtaining what they think their rights. Of course the public, suffering people have no right to be concerned.

WISE MOVE.

The decision of the city council to consolidate the two down town fire departments and have but one house for the fire department, and make the abandoned fire station as a police headquarters is a wise move. It will take but a small amount of money to alter the east side fire station into a police station, and it would take to erect a new building on the city property opposite the city hall where it was originally designed to build it, and the saving will be money in the taxpayers' pockets.

Taking the unsanitary lock-up away from the city hall, constructing proper accommodations for the transient and cells for the prisoners held on police warrants, officers with suitable quarters for the men and the automobile in a central location, will mean a step forward in the line of handling police matters as they should be. The council is to be congratulated on the move they have taken and it is to be hoped that they will follow it up with others that will tend to increase the efficiency of every department of the municipal government.

The basement of the city hall was never really designed for a lock-up. The cell room is a fire trap of the worst sort as well as being most unsanitary. The police headquarters are inadequate for the needs of the department and the room these two occupy can be utilized to advantage by other departments of the city government. The real test of the matter is that it is a wonder that the state inspectors have permitted the use of the present quarters as long as they have. The proposed change is a good one and should receive the support of citizens generally.

COMPLICATIONS.

The possibility that the house of representatives may be organized by the republican majority, a republican speaker elected and the plans that go with the election of such an officer who has the appointment of children of committees of various sorts means a revolution in diplomatic Washington, it would appear. The White House is strongly democratic, the senate is yet controlled by the democrats so that the House is going to be the stumbling block of the republican majority. The democratic congressmen kicked over the traces before the last national election and voted as they saw fit—even to the discredit of the democratic president—means that there is a liability that the republican majority will be even larger than ever. One important element to be taken into consideration in the organization of the House is the vote of the New York Tammany democracy. It has been a team four years for the Tammany Tiger. He has not even had a few choice bits of meat to chew on and his leanness from the "dry bone" policy is apt to play as important a part in the organization of the lower house of congress as it did in carrying New York state for Hughes, by the majority that he received. However this is guess work, but even after the House is organized it is going to be nip and tuck for the president to get his legislation through without aid—material aid—of republicans, and if the republicans stand together, vote for the best interests of the country and their constituents, the line of procedure may be somewhat changed in Washington, even though the White House is occupied by a democratic official.

SURVEY OF SCHOOLS TO START MONDAY

Ten Inspectors From State Department to Be Here for Survey—Will Proceed Quietly.

The survey of the Janesville school system will begin on Monday when a corps of ten inspectors from the state department of education arrives in this city to begin the preliminary investigations and tests. This announcement was made this morning by Superintendent H. H. Faust after he had received a letter to this effect from U. S. Cary, state superintendent of education, under whom all the survey work is conducted.

As yet it is not known definitely what line the survey will follow, but it is believed their work will be of such a nature that they will find the schools in their normal condition, and will hence be able to ascertain the true facts better than if the work was formalized for inspection.

Representatives of the state department, both men and women who have attained a position of considerable prominence in education, because of their surveys in other cities, will conduct the investigations in conference together all the facts, and in conferences to make what recommendations they find necessary. At a later date other experts from outside the state will be called to correlate the preliminary work in certain further recommendations regarding a building policy and courses of study.

O. E. S. STUDY CLASS DISCUSSES IRELAND

Class Takes Up Consideration of "The Emerald Isle" in Songs, Papers and Stories.

"The Emerald Isle" was the subject of the program on yesterday afternoon when the O. E. S. Study Class met at the home of Mrs. William Ashcraft, on Jackson street. "The Wearing of the Green" was sung as an opening number and specimens of Irish wit were given in answer to roll call of members. Mrs. Anna Cuntess then gave a very interesting paper on St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland. She spoke of his being held in captivity, and working as a slave in Ireland, and after his escape being sent back there as a missionary. She told of his wonderful success in their religious work, of the 365 churches established and the twelve thousand people baptized into the faith. Many miracles are ascribed to him, but very few of his religious writings are left, and but few date his life story as authentic. March 17 is the date of his death, and not of his birth, the latter date being unknown. After his death Ireland was the center of learning and of religious faith for many years.

Mrs. J. H. Dower was present and gave a group of Irish selections in the dialect which was very funny and amusing. They were "The Wearing of the Green," "Circumstances Alter Cases," and "Roller Skating."

Mrs. C. V. Karch gave a wonderful interesting paper on the "Folk Lore of Ireland," which was prepared for another occasion, but was especially appropriate for this program. The chairman of the education committee of the City Federation, gave an informal talk along the line of that work.

There were about forty present at this meeting and a pleasant social hour was spent after the program. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the hostesses, Mrs. Ashcraft, Mrs. Carle, and Mrs. Charles Evans.

The Jubilee Singers of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute of Alabama, of which the late Booker T. Washington was the founder, will appear at the First Congregational church on Monday evening, March 19th, at eight o'clock. This company, a group of negro singers who were students at that institution, have traveled over the entire United States singing in the interests of the school of which they are graduates.

The program to be rendered consists of the old-fashioned plantation melodies, folk songs, dialect readings, and an address entitled "The Story of Tuskegee Institute," by Charles Winter Wood, the noted Beloit graduate and orator.

The men are a highly trained group of singers and are well able to present the old negro melodies in a way the white man cannot attain. There will be no admission charged, though offerings to assist in the operating expenses of the school will be gladly accepted.

Tuskegee Institute has grown since 1881 from a shanty and a poultry house to a point where modern buildings and covers 2,500 acres of land. There are forty distinct trades and industries taught to more than 2,000 students annually by a faculty of 200 teachers and workers, all of them negroes.

BOYS SAVE LIFE OF GIRL PLAYMATE

Edgerton, March 16.—A serious accident was averted Thursday noon by the forethought and bravery of the Lein and Jim Henderson, two twelve-year-old boy scholars at the Albion Prairie district school. During the noon hour the school children were playing on the ice on a pond in the vicinity of the Sam Clarke farm when suddenly the ice broke, letting the little eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Osgard, and her sled through the ice and into about three feet of water. As she did not appear at the surface again these two boys went to her rescue. The Lein boy went to the edge of the ice and was unable to locate the child. The Henderson boy immediately followed and taking hold of the Lein boy's feet, let him down under the ice and in this manner he was able to locate the little girl and her sled. After the rescue the little girl was taken on a sled to the home of Arthur Vickers by some of the older girls. Finding no one at home the children forced an entrance to the house and the little girl was given a hot bath and a rub. Dry clothing was found and later the children returned to the school house, no worse for their experience. The presence of mind and bravery of these two little boys who made the rescue, is highly commendable, and but for their prompt actions the little girl would have drowned.

The lecture given by Lieut. M. Swartzkopfsky at the Congregational church last evening proved to be most interesting. M. Swartzkopfsky was not only a former member of the Czar of Russia's body guard. Later he was sentenced to Siberia, but escaped. His first hand experience in the treatment of Russian prisoners made his lecture a very interesting one.

BADGERS BEAT INDIANA
IN LAST BASKETBALL GAME

The University of Wisconsin basketball team defeated Indiana, 18 to 6, at Bloomington last night, in the last game of the season for the Badgers. Indiana started off well, but by the middle of the first half Wisconsin had taken a good lead and from then on the score was never close. The victory gives Wisconsin undisputed third place in the conference, although they are really in second position as the result of the tie for first place between Illinois and Minnesota.

MAY BE GETTING READY FOR GAMES WITH BIG NINE

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
An Arbor, Mich., March 16.—Candidates for the University of Michigan football eleven have been requested to start training at once. Captain of the squad has made arrangements for the players to work out in the gymnasium.

The success or the failure of the team will depend on the condition of the squad. Smith said, "and I want to see the team start to prepare themselves now."

HANS WAGNER PROVES
BASEBALL'S MARVEL

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

New York, March 16.—So much has been written of Hans Wagner, his record, his habits, and his all-around sterling qualities, that it seems futile to add to the rules of columns that have been used in his favor.

Wagner, however, is getting ready to enter his twenty-sixth season of baseball, and the marvel of it is, he is counted on to play a most important part in the hopes of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Wagner is a wonder. His remarkable ball playing isn't the only thing that holds him up to fondness on a pedestal few players ever have reached and none surpassed.

Wagner began to be a ball player before many men now in the game were born. It was in 1891 that he did his first work for the Mansfield, Pa., club. He branched from there to Ohio, finally getting his name into the records for the first time in 1895 when he played with Steubenville as an outfielder. He hung up a mark of 402 for forty-four games.

Wagner spent a couple of seasons in the Atlantic league, playing with Patterson, and then went to Louisville, which then boasted a club in the National league. He played three seasons at Louisville and then was taken with the club when it was transferred to Pittsburgh. He played first base, third base, and in the outfield for Louisville, hammering the ball each year for averages far ahead of 300, once attaining 370.

Wagner dropped from the charmed circle of barmen when he hit only .252 in 1914, just after he had barely stuck in the class by hitting an even .300.

Wagner is falling. He isn't the same old ball player at all. He isn't throwing because he will not admit it, and his smartness in the field and at bat makes him to be desired over younger players, who probably would cover more ground, and admitted a year ago it was becoming hard for him to see the ball, and this probably means he will be on the bench a great deal of the time this summer.

Indications are he will not be used in his old position of shortstop, but will take care of first base for Jimmy Callahan's entry.

ALL-STAR INDIANA ATHLETE
SCHOOLS AT BLOOMINGTON

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Bloomington, Ill., March 16.—Benton Springer, who last year was picked for a place on the All-Illinois high school basketball team, has been elected captain of the freshman basketball team of Indiana university.

Springer is also a football and baseball player and is counted on next fall to fill the vacancy in the kicking department caused by the loss of Walter Hess.

EDDIE PLANK SIGNS
WITH ST. LOUIS BROWNS

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
St. Louis, March 16.—Eddie Plank, the 40-year-old southpaw, has finally signed with the St. Louis Browns. Plank, a veteran world's series star, wants to be traded, but it is probable that St. Louis will retain him. With Plank signed, Armando Marsans, the Cuban outfielder, is the only regular member of last year's club who is regarded as a holdout.

SMOKEY JOE'S SALARY AND HIS BONUS

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Cleveland, March 16.—"Smoky" Joe Wood, purchased by the Cleveland Americans for $15,000, will receive a salary of $6,000 and a bonus of $2,000 if he wins twenty games, it is reported.

ATWOOD AND FLODEN
OPPOSE EACH OTHER
IN CARD-LEVIS GAME

That long looked for and already once protracted battle between Eddie Atwood and Floden, which Lakota Club Cardinal basketball team followed, will come off tomorrow night if it appears, when George Levis brings his all star collection of lights here in the attempt to be able to have the distinction of gathering an aggregation together which can trounce the Cards on their own battleground.

The fact that prospects are bright for the clash between Atwood and Floden to decide which is the better player, is proving fully as much of interest as the fact that Levis is planning to bring a team composed entirely of stars. The game should be a battle royal, providing the conference star gets Chick McIntosh of Edgerton University of Wisconsin star, and Harold Olson, captain of the varsity team of this season.

Here is what the Madison State Journal said last night of Olson and his playing his last conference game against Indiana:

Captain Harold Olson, the premier guard of Coach McLaughlin's aggregation for the past three years, will appear in conference basketball circles for the last time. The big guard has played in practically every game that the Badgers have had in his three years on the squad, and has never failed to present an offensive as well as defensive attack that was almost perfect.

Olson has been practically a forward this year as he has been the mainstay of the offense all season and left the major part of the defense to Captain Olson is a shift player and covers the floor well. His long dribbles for baskets have been the sensation of the conference this season and no guard has shown so much ability at this feature of the game as has the Cardinal second semester captain.

With Olson and McIntosh and Levis there will be a great deal of action. The latter is coming out from Duluth, after having gained more honors in Iowa basketball this season. "Muggs" has been the unanimous choice for All-Iowa guard.

In addition to this was the selection for the same position from the colleges which constitute the Hawkeye conference.

Maurice Sheeney, a Dubuque sporting writer, the All-Star team, says of the local boy:

"There were some exceptionally strong guards in the conference, and among them Dalton looked up as the Northern Star. Dickson of the Teachers is another safe choice, for his capacity for breaking up plays appeared unlimited. Of the two, Dalton had more than made when their respective teams clashed."

Handicapped by injuries on the football field, Joe Ryan of this city, All-Hawkeye forward last year, played but a mediocre game for Dubuque this year. Sheeney places Joe on the second squad, and writes:

"J. Ryan of Dubuque was awarded an all conference position last year, but although he appeared at times to be the cream of Dubuque's 1916-17 basketball material, was so inconsistent that he could hardly be chosen on the first quintet this season. He is given left forward on the second team."

Mitchell and Pineda will play the forwards for the Cards. Knapp and Heiler will be at the guards and Floden at center, will show just what kind of a player he is against Atwood.

It is seldom that a leader in boxing has been killed in action. The last to fall a victim while in the ring was Luther McCarthy, who died as a result of a blow struck by Arthur Felky. Tommy Burns was the promoter of the bout which was staged in a Calgary (Alberta) ring in the spring of 1913.

JIMMY WILDE JOINS THE ENGLISH ARMY

Jimmy Wilde, the English fly-weight champion, and the fastest scrapper of his size in the game, has joined the English army and will help defend his country.

Sport Snap Shots

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
St. Louis, March 16.—Felder Jones, manager of the St. Louis American, will be one of the few major league managers who will not have an assistant at the training camp this spring. Jones will handle a squad of thirty-two players alone at Palestine, Tex.

The reorganized Sherman club of the Western Association has made a happy choice in its selection of president. He is C. W. (Billy) Batsell, old-time ball player and now prominent business man, who hasn't allowed anything to interfere with his interest in the game. August Saul will remain as secretary of the club and Leo Hellman, who played first base for Denison last year, will be manager.

Sherwood Magee's salary, it is reported, was cut from $6,500 to $4,200. He had a long-term contract at the former figure, which expired last fall. It is rumored that Magee signed with the understanding that he should be traded by the Braves if a deal possibly could be made. At the low salary several clubs are likely to bid for him.

The Cincinnati Reds will have more exciting this season than any other major league team. The ex-Feds on the Cincinnati roster include Allen and Huhn, catchers; Knetzer and Mosely, pitchers; Chase, Louen, McKechnie, Esmond, infielders; Cretio and Roush, outfielders. Not more than one-half of these ten, however, can be counted on to stick the season through.

George Kelly, the elongated nephew of Bill Lange, is now considered as a pitching prospect and nothing else by Manager McGraw of the Giants. He was told to join the twirling squad as soon as he arrived at Marlin. Kelly has a great throwing arm. If he can acquire curves and control he should get by as a pitcher, though it may take him a year or two to develop.

Manager Mathewson rather favors the idea, but President Herrmann thinks the bonus plan tends to dissuade and dissatisfaction. Last year Toney won fourteen games and lost seventeen. He would have to go to the National league is supposed to observe the limit of thirty-five players under contract during the off-season period, yet when the Cubs took the field for their first practice at Pasadena, Manager Mitchell counted forty-one in uniform, while at Marlin John McGraw's squad must number something like fifty. He had nineteen pitchers and six catchers to handle them. Several of the battery men, however, already have been released to minor league clubs and McGraw is just taking the opportunity to look them over with the idea of recall.

Your health balance is more important than your bank balance.

CITY TITLE GAME
AND CONTEST WITH EDGERTON TONIGHT

St. Mary's and Methodists to Decide Championship of Church League.

—Highs Meet Edgerton.

Local basketball fans are promised an evening of hot contest at the high school gym this evening, when the St. Mary's team and the Methodist boys meet to decide the city championship, and when the high school squad takes on the Edgerton champions. The first games is scheduled for seven o'clock and the high school game for eight o'clock.

Both the church teams which will meet to decide the ownership of the Lovjoy cup for the next year have shown themselves to be masters of basketball in the lighter class. The St. Mary's boys have won three out of four games in their division, putting them securely at the head; the Methodists have won three straight games in their own division, so a fast match is predicted for tonight. Frank Gleason, coach of the St. Mary's team, has rounded his boys into fine form and goes into the game confident of success. E. E. Manross, who has been mentor of the Methodist team, declares that squad to be a better team than has been turned out in the church league for some time.

Coach Keck of the high school team has put his squad through a series of the hardest practices of the season since the Whitewater tournament, in anticipation of the game with Edgerton tonight. The local boys have the hope of trimming the Tobacco City boys, who are the strongest contenders in the state for the title, but expect to keep them hustling every minute of the game. Edgerton will find it difficult to get through some of the guarding formations evolved by Coach Keck.

The following men will start the game for Janesville: Davey at center, Kenning and Hagar at guard, and Morse and Kober at forward.

The St. Mary's boys have won three out of four games in their division, putting them securely at the head; the Methodists have won three straight games in their own division, so a fast match is predicted for tonight. Frank Gleason, coach of the St. Mary's team, has rounded his boys into fine form and goes into the game confident of success. E. E. Manross, who has been mentor of the Methodist team, declares that squad to be a better team than has been turned out in the church league for some time.

Coach Keck of the high school team has put his squad through a series of the hardest practices of the season since the Whitewater tournament, in anticipation of the game with Edgerton tonight. The local boys have the hope of trimming the Tobacco City boys, who are the strongest contenders in the state for the title, but expect to keep them hustling every minute of the game. Edgerton will find it difficult to get through some of the guarding formations evolved by Coach Keck.

The following men will start the game for Janesville: Davey at center, Kenning and Hagar at guard, and Morse and Kober at forward.

ATWOOD AND FLODEN
IN CARD-LEVIS GAME

That long looked for and already once protracted battle between Eddie Atwood and Floden, which Lakota Club Cardinal basketball team followed, will come off tomorrow night if it appears, when George Levis brings his all star collection of lights here in the attempt to be able to have the distinction of gathering an aggregation together which can trounce the Cards on their own battleground.

The fact that prospects are bright for the clash between Atwood and Floden to decide which is the better player, is proving fully as much of interest as the fact that Levis is planning to bring a team composed entirely of stars. The game should be a battle royal, providing the conference star gets Chick McIntosh of Edgerton University of Wisconsin star, and Harold Olson, captain of the varsity team of this season.

Here is what the Madison State Journal said last night of Olson and his playing his last conference game against Indiana:

Captain Harold Olson, the premier guard of Coach McLaughlin's aggregation for the past three years, will appear in conference basketball circles for the last time. The big guard has played in practically every game that the Badgers have had in his three years on the squad, and has never failed to present an offensive as well as defensive attack that was almost perfect.
